Tori Spellings' royal one gets more from Celebrity Chitts' A-list approved clients

St. Clair Shores, MI – August 19, 2008 Only a few days after entertainment marketing firm, Celebrity Chitt delivered a ginormous box of celebrity baby swag to Tori Spelling for her two month old princess Stella Doreen, will she receive another. Everyone loves Tori Spelling, star of the hit show 90210, the new reality show Tori and Dean which features her family life and author of the newly released book Stori Telling. Celebrity Chitts' clients can't get enough of Tori, so she and new her royal princess Stella, receives gifts without limits!

This time around mommy Tori will open up a dazzling designer box for herself and her precious starlet which includes a darling, large, "All About the Tush" eco-tote diaper bag in black and pink from Susan Murphy Inc. Custom, the bag is perfect for carrying all of Stella's baby belongings and stylish enough for Tori to tote down the streets of Hollywood. Susan Murphy Inc. is a charity-based company which offers a variety of embroidered totes, caps and goodies for all occasions.

For the sweet feeding moments, Tori has a blazing blue Cushie Pushie. The latest in breastfeeding accessories, the Cushie Pushie is a breastfeeding support pillow, created for moms by a mom. The pillow is the only one of its kind and provides a nice lift for the breast while maintaining proper nursing technique. Cushie Pushie is Made in the USA, machine washable and available in organic material also.

When Tori has a moment to relax, she can indulge in author Barbara Smith's new book, Polka Dot Star Flowers. Years of pain lead the author to seek a new avenue. Barbara shares her life story and shares how everyone can have joy each day of their lives. This book is bound to be very motivational and enlightening for Tori since she has been pretty open and public about several of her struggles.

There's a treat for little Stella's toes too! squeakeez by Aleja LAKroy, the stylish shoes that squeak with each step. Stella will certainly be stepping sooner than we can imagine. So for those special first steps, squeakeez are a treat for the feet that won't skip a beat. Stella has the Irene style in pink leather with multi-colored flowers on the toes. The shoes are leather, promote heel-to-toe walking and have removable squeakers.
